

Working scientifically in the Early Years.

I question why things happen.

I notice similarities and differences.

I can use my senses and look closely.

I have my own ideas.

Working Scientifically EYFS

I use equipment and tools carefully.

I can create simple representations of people and objects.

I test my ideas.

I can talk about things like plants, animals, natural and found objects.

