Our learning in Summer 2

In English, we are writing a non chronological report about our agent of change David Attenborough and will be exploring and creating poetry

In maths, we will be learning about position and direction, place value, money and time.

In religion, we are exploring the concept of being sorry and we will look at the story of Zaccheaus. We are also exploring the life of our agent of change David Attenborough and why he has made a difference to our planet

In science, we will be continuing to learn about the seasons and the changes they cause throughout the year.

In humanities, we are learning geography. We are learning about Barcelona and comparing it to our local city.

In ICT, we will be using technology to collect information and grouping data.

In music, we will be revising our topic of singing and listening.

In art, we are beginning to explore sculpting.
